VOLUME LXIII — UKIAH, MENDOCINO CO., CAL., FRIDAY, JUNE 3, 1932 — NUMBER 37

Arrangements Complete for 11th Annual Rodeo

George P. Anderson, chairman of the rodeo committee of the Ukiah fair association, and his assistants are in the midst of intensive preparations for the eleventh annual Ukiah rodeo which will be held on June 10, 11 and 12.

Norman Cowan, rodeo manager, has scoured the country for wild horses and steers, and the continent for world famous riders and ropers. He promises the most spectacular show that Ukiah ever has staged.

A Cowboy Jamboree to boost the rodeo will be put on at 7:00 p. m. Saturday, June 4, by a committee headed by Charles Luce, representing a number of organizations including the Rotary, Lions and Twenty-Thirty clubs, the Ukiah fire department, and the Ukiah cowboys.

The colorful parade will form at the city hall and will be led by Judge M. H. Iversen mounted on his pinto cow pony.

The line of march will proceed north on School street to Henry and back by way of State street to the courthouse, where the various stunts will be announced.

The haywire orchestra of the Ukiah Lions club are planning to entertain with a variety of cowboy numbers.

The local horsemen will all be in full regalia and the jamboree promises to be a lively affair.

The Ukiah fair association invites all children under the age of 12 to be their guests at the rodeo, Friday, June 10.

A number of stars of the first magnitude in the rodeo world, many of whom won fresh laurels at the Livermore rodeo, are scheduled to appear in the Ukiah rodeo.

Perry Ivory, of Alturas, who was a favorite rider last year, will again appear here.

Among others scheduled to participate in this year's events are Earl Thode, Chuck Wilson, Eddie Woods, Hub Whiting, Freddie Hunt, Almon Gordon, Dolf Aber, Tuffy Welch, Joe Mallory, Vera McGinnis, Dorothy Hunt, Della Shriver and Donna Cowan.

Pete Knight won the bronc contest in Ukiah in 1931, and it looks as if Pete's name may go on the Eden valley cup for the second time.

It was won in 1929 by Bob Studenick and in 1930 by Johnny Jordan.

The cowboy winning the cup this year will keep the trophy permanently.

No Light Shed on Cloverdale Tragedy

(Press Democrat)

Raymond Jacks, 30, and Flamian Knight, 19, Cloverdale Indians held for investigation in connection with the murder of John Thompson, 75, whose body was found in his cabin, this week, were released from the county jail today.

Fred Arnold, 50, another Indian, said by officers to have been the last man to see Thompson alive, and suspected of being the man who fired the fatal shot, still was being held.

Meanwhile, Sheriff Flohr and other officers are continuing the search for the death weapon with which Thompson was shot through the head as he sat on the edge of his bed.

Belief that the murder followed a quarrel over possession of an old pistol, left with Thompson as security for a loan of one dollar, was expressed by authorities.

Jacks and Knight, said to have been witnesses to the transaction, were unable to shed any light on the killing or to advance any motive, other than a posible quarrel over the weapon, it was said. Both men were questioned exhaustively by Sheriff Flohr and other officers.

Obstreperous Indian Fined $10 by Judge

Allen, cursing and making threats against the white people, and emitting war whoops, entered the Cecille hotel. Johnny De Hart, night clerk who was on duty, tried to quiet him and get him to leave, but to no avail.

Preston Cherry, manager of the hotel, was awakened by the noise and with Tom Poulos, managed to get the drunken Indian to his car, which was parked in front of the California cafe. Another Indian was in the machine under the influence of liquor.

About five minutes elapsed and Allen was back in the hotel. Cherry, aroused by this time, knocked him to the floor and held him until Fisk arrived with an employee of a local restaurant. It was necessary for Fisk to use force in taking Allen to jail.

He was brought up before City Judge Percy Handy Tuesday morning and fined $10.00 on the charge.

IN GRASS VALLEY

Mrs. C. R. Olive, who left here two weeks ago for her parents' home in Grass Valley, is reported by her husband as very much improved in health. She expects to be gone about four months.

ROUND VALLEY

COVELO, May 3.—Mrs. Frances Henley spoke before the missionary branch of the Dorcas Aid Society on Friday at the home of Mrs. Edith Walter, telling of life in the Philippines as she knew it during her thirty years' residence as a teacher in Manila. She told briefly of a visit to the leper colony outside Manila, and of the wonderful work being done there to alleviate human suffering. Five thousand cases are treated in this institution. Healing may be effected if the patient comes during the early stages of the disease. Mrs. Henley has been appointed principal of a high school with an enrollment of 1100 pupils. The arts and crafts department often received students from Dumaguete, where Mr. and Mrs. Glunz, formerly of Covelo, are teaching. These students were always popular because they excelled in athletics. The hours in Mrs. Henley's institution were 7:30 to 11:30 in the morning, and 12:30 to 4:30 in the afternoon. Half the pupils came to the morning classes, the other half in the afternoon. She found the natives keen to learn, earnest and gentle. There was no thought of discipline. The school is supported by the native government. Manila is a city of about 400,000 population. Its American population is much smaller now than it was some years ago. Resident there is Fred Prising, a former citizen of Covelo. Aguinaldo's wife was at one time a student under Mrs. Henley's tuition. In response to a question the speaker said "I don't think you understand the menace of Japan."

About twenty-five ladies were present. Mrs. Squires, the new president, conducted the service. She was ably assisted by Mrs. Burnham. At the close of the program the hostess and her committee served salad and sandwiches. The June meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Squires.

The heavy rainstorm of Saturday and Sunday interfered seriously with vacation plans of many who were returning to the home community for celebration of Memorial day. It has also delayed hay harvesting. Many acres of hay are in winrows in the field.

B. F. Haydon suffered a paralytic stroke last week, from which he is gradually recovering. His brother, John Haydon of Santa Rosa, and son Ted of Petaluma, came up on receipt of news of his illness.

Miss Edna Goforth and Joe Jasper went to Ukiah Saturday, where they plan to be married. Mrs. Quinliven accompanied them to the county seat.

The high school baccalaureate sermon will be preached by Rev. Chas. Olsen at the Presbyterian church on Sunday evening, June 5. Graduation exercises for both the high and grammar schools will follow during the week, the grammar school on the eighth and the high on the ninth.

The men's forum continued the discussion of conditions in Russia on Sunday evening. The condition of agriculture in Russia was the specific topic. G. M. Biggar, Roger Perkins, H. L. Burnham and Harold Goforth each contributed valuable information concerning the greatest social experiment the world has seen in centuries.

The next meeting of the Women's Improvement club will be held on June 4. The annual election of officers will held on this date.

Mr. and Mrs. Emmet Spurlock, of Sacramento, spent the week end at the T. F. Spurlock ranch. Mrs. Louise Spurlock returned with them to their home.

Max Barton, of Vallejo, was greeting friends in Round valley Saturday and Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Coke, of Orland, and Mrs. D. T. Johnson and Betty, of Ukiah, drove up Saturday.

Miss Helen Lowry has returned from Arcata. She will graduate with her high school class on Thursday.

Principal F. F. Zeek and family returned Monday to Calistoga, after a brief visit with Covelo relatives.

The Masonic cemetery has never been so clean and trim nor so full of beautiful flowers as it was on the morning of Memorial day this week, when a representative group of Round valley citizens, probably 150 in numbers, gathered to do honor to our beloved and illustrious dead. Volunteer workers with baskets of flowers saw to it that every grave received its tribute. At the call of the bugle Augusta Chapter, O. E. S., followed the flag to the head of the grave of Harry Betts, World war veteran, the firing squad of the American Legion took its place at the foot, and Assemblyman Biggar announced the numbers of the fitting program which followed. Pastor Gray of the Baptist church gave a sketch of the history of Memorial day. Music was furnished by the band, the ladies' trio and the choral club. The beautiful ceremony of taps was presented by the Boy Scouts, the solemn salute by the Legion firing squad, and the last notes of the national anthem were merged in an approaching shower of rain.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur White of Davis, accompanied by Mrs. White's sister, Miss Claribel Buckley, and her friend Courtney Demars, were guests over Sunday at the E. O. White home.

Mr. and Mrs. Lee O'Ferrall and daughter, Edna, of Trinity county, spent the week end with Covelo relatives.

Connolly and family, of Oakland, former residents of this city, Dr. Mervin Perkins, formerly of Ukiah, now of San Francisco, Mrs. Perkins and their son, and Messrs. Morgan, brothers of Mrs. Perkins.

SCOUTS ASSIST MOTORIST

Boy Scout Troop No. 40, in charge of George David, spent two days over the week end on the coast at Albion, camping. On their way home over the Mc-Donald-to-the-Sea highway they helped an unfortunate motorist and his wife, who had skidded off the highway into a ditch, to right their car. Due to the steep bank they were unable to get the car back on the road. The occupants of the car were unhurt.

Mrs. E. L. Bielby, of Stockton, visited last week end with Mrs. Ann Ebbert, who is the mother of Mrs. Bielby. They were guests at the Cecille hotel while here.

WILLITS NOTES

WILLITS, June 1.—The storm over the week end hurt the tourist trade very much and all of the business people who were looking forward to a large turnout of city people are very much disappointed. While it only rained .64 of an inch it drizzled most of the time for several days. Our total rainfall is now 46.61 inches for the season. This has been what is known as a wet, backward spring but we have had no big rains. It rained 15 days in January, seven in February, 10 in March, 13 in April and 10 during the month of May. Last year at this date our total was only 37.71 inches. We have had splendid growing weather and the feed in the hills is now equal to our very best years and the late sown grain has been helped wonderfully. There was some hay down but this can be turned and the damage will not amount to much.

Masonic Temple

Very good progress is now being made on the construction of the Masonic temple. The underfloor on the first story has been laid and the frame work is now being erected.

Majestic Theater Sold

A. G. Conquest and Viola Langer, of San Francisco, this week purchased the Majestic theater from Mrs. Edna Berg. The new firm will be known as the Willits Theater, Inc., but will continue to operate the show house as the Majestic theater. Many new and modern improvements will be placed in the show house as fast as possible with plans of making the local theater one of the best and most modern and up-to-date show houses in the Redwood Empire.

Miss Ruth Lude and Harold Webber were married at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. D. Webber, near Longvale, Sunday, by Rev. F. E. Livingston. Both bride and groom are well known here and they have a host of friends who wish them the largest measure of marital bliss.

Summer Schedule

The summer schedule of the Northwestern Pacific railroad took effect last Saturday. The midday passenger train now arrives here a half hour earlier than it did. Did You Hear —of the man that took longer steps to make his $5.00 shoes last longer—

—But in doing so, split an $8.00 pair of pants.

—Moral: wear Brownbilt shoes and you'll not need to take longer steps—they just naturally wear longer.
